Friday's Flash news: (Unedited copy)

Today our offer will expire

Dear Members,

On Thursday most of markets traded negative, selloff was witnessed in European and USA markets. Commodities traded mix but copper and China remained in headline. Copper prices made another low and will touched soon our predicted price of $282. Dollar Index rebounded strongly and on other hand Yen and Thirty Year Bond also gained value.

Stocks traded negative but Fuel-cell stocks remain in demand. S&P closed below 1854 which was bit surprise for us but let's see if its trade below 1854 for three days or not. Trading below 1854 for three days will surely give negative indications but still downside will limited.

Keep adding HZNP, FCEL, REGN, EBAY, MICROSOFT and other leading stocks will do well in coming time.

Friday we may see weakness in rest of world markets will continue but USA will remain in very tight range so watch closely, we still don't see S&P going below 1836 so great buying opportunity on any weakness.

Finally metals time is turning negative so build good sizable positions in precious metals on Friday so huge corrections is on the way. Also GLL and DUST will be great trade for the enxt 2 months.

This is what we mentioned on Wednesday: FMCC and FMNA fell sharply more than 30% due to windup but we don't see this taking place so watch carefully. We don't see both these stocks going below $3.00 so we recommend buying in these both stocks on weakness during this week.

Selling pressure was noticed in Indexes due to expiry but many frontline stocks did well like Apple, Microsoft and many. S&P closed lower and may test 1854, we don't see it falling or closing below 1854 so watch this level closely as this level will be path guider.

Lately soft commodities have been outperforming as predicted, we still believe that in 2014 soft commodities will outperform against rest of commodities. At this this stage sharp corrections can arrive in these soft commodities as they went too far too quick so trade carefully.

Copper is trading negative as predicted, we may see prices going toward $282.

Once again all eyes will be on Russia; our Astro combinations are clearly supporting markets no matter what Russia does. S&P's new astro support point is 1854 and most important 1836, and the higher side can easily move another three percent.

*Markets may get volatile not because of Ukraine but because of Mars so don't miss opportunity of buying on any sell off of weaker trend in market because Retro Mars always bring volatility whenever it turn retro but then it always created bigger bullish trend.

Here are the trading ranges and strategies for Friday:

METALS

Today is final positive day for precious metals and from here huge correction can occur so watch closely. I would like to see three negative day below $1363 will confirm gold toward $1180.

DUST and GLL also fell sharply, hold position in both, so far our recommendation of buying DUST and GLL proven wrong, also selling precious metals call gone wrong.

This is watch we mentioned yesterday: Gold and silver traded positive, now gold is approaching toward most important astro resistance level of $1377 which we mentioned last month. Future markets are risky but buying put will surely provide great return by end of June. Those who are holding puts in gold and silver should hold as there will be sudden sharp drop in precious market (May be next week).

This is what we mentioned on Wednesday: In last week's newsletter, we mentioned a bearish trend for copper. We are not recommending buying copper at this stage on Monday. Palladium did well; hold buying positions in palladium. Platinum will remain sideways.

Even if war between Ukraine and Russia won't able to put gold prices higher than $1347 and in worst case $1377 (1% chances of gold closing above $1377).

Here is Friday's range: (May 2014 contract):

GOLD: $1379.90 to $1361.80 (April) Trade in and out

SILVER: $21.56 TO $21.01 Trade in and out

COPPER: $294.90 TO $289.30 Hold short

PALLADIUM: $786.50 TO $770.80 Hold buying

PLATINUM: $1491.00 TO $1463.90

INDEXES

Friday most of market will form low and from here markets will rebound but may take some time as S&P closed below 1854. We are bit nervous about S&P closing below 1854 but let's see if its hold 1836 or not. Avoid rest of world markets except India.

Bullish momentum will continue if S&P hold 1836. If S&P close below 1836 then may go toward 1772 (chances of happening this is 10%). If today S&P close above 1854 will confirm that it is going toward 1918 to 1932 in the next ten days.

This is what we mentioned Wednesday: Tuesday markets performed negative so same kind of trend will continue in all major markets on Wednesday. USA market has very limited downside so watch our lower side predicted ranges here as S&P, Russell, Nasdaq and Dow will rebound strongly from lows. We still believe that 1854 and 1836 levels will be proven like wall of China for S&P as S&P may refuse so go down so don't go shorts in frontline stocks. Yes, you can keep booking profit, no need to wait for 1000% to 3000% returns in stocks but surely you can hold some positions in our favorite stocks but don't forget to book profit on sharp move.

European and Asian markets will trade negative but surely we may see India and USA market holding well on lower sides.

Time to buy these stocks: Amazon, REGN, Ebay, Apple, Google and Microsoft closely, also don't short biotech name because many big popular guys have been talking negative about biotech for months but these stocks will keep rising in 2014.

This is what we mentioned yesterday: Tuesday we recommend buying around lower sides predicted range in all major markets. Avoid Chinese, Hong Kong and other few Asian markets. Avoid also European markets as well but don't short US once they achieve lower range as mentioned here below. Hold positions in our recommended frontline stocks but keep booking profit on any sharp rise in PLUG and BLDP (I enjoy putting PLUG, FMCC and FNMA "moved more than 2500% in the last one year" charts as these recommendations remained best call apart from tech bubble as in tech era 1996-2000 few recommended stocks moved more than 5000%).

This is what we mentioned last Monday: In the last two month S&P is trying to consolidate around 1800 which is great news. This is stage 1854 is major Astro resistance level and S&P has to close above this level for three days to confirm new bull cycle. On downside we still see strong astro support point at 1834 so we don't see market going below 1834.

Here is Friday's ranges: (March contracts)

AUSTRALIAN (Cash) – 5408 to 5352

NIKKEI (Sep) – 14750 TO 14320

NIFTY S&P (Spot) – 6545 to 6450

SINGAPORE (cash) – 3075 TO 3050

HONG KONG (cash) – 21759 to 21402

CAC – 4271 TO 4180

DAX – 9050 TO 8855

DEX EURO STOXX – 3157 - 3120

FTSE – 6588 TO 6480

FTSE/JSE – 42245 to 41840

S&P – 1853.00 TO 1836.00

NASDAQ – 3680.50 TO 3630.25

RUSSELL – 1184.00 TO 1165.00

DOW – 16236 TO 16011

TREASURY BOND

Thirty year bond gained handsome value, we see positive trend continuing on Friday but still Thirty year will struggle to close above 136 so take selling opportunity on rise. As we mentioned last week, 135 to 136 is a good selling level, and we still hold the same predictions.

The thirty year bonds traded mixed. 128 is a very strong astro support point which we predicted six months ago when we recommended selling at 150.

Friday trading range (March contract):

TREASURY BOND – 135-12 TO 134.05

SOFT COMMODITIES

On Thursday coffee and sugar traded bit negative so big corrections is pending before prices move toward new high. We are not changing any predictions of what we mentioned yesterday: Finally it looks like that coffee will struggle to cross $212 at this stage so take buying opportunity in put options on any rise during this week. Rest of soft commodities will also trade mix, don't trade with future trade as they are too risky so plan your trade with calls and puts. Selling also recommended in sugar so buy put in sugar as well.

We still recommend buying call in coffee and sugar, but one can also take shorter term puts in all these soft commodities.

This is what we mentioend last week: Remember we are not recommending any shorts as coffee is our most favorite commodity, and we predicted that we won't be surprised even if it moves above $400.

Friday trading range: (May 2013 Contract)

COFFEE: $207.90 TO $199.95

COTTON: $92.50 TO $90.39

COCOA: $3032 TO $2966

SUGAR: $17.97 TO $17.47

GRAINS

Soy and meal prices stabilized after sharp corrections in the last three days. We don't see any major rise so sell soy and meal on any rise. Wheat will come down from today so take selling opportunity on any rise. Corn will hold value.

This is what we mentioned Monday: Except corn we never thought that soy and wheat would move higher, but they did in the last four weeks. I was not able to read the rising trend in soy and wheat. I was studying soy and wheat, and the astro trend still looks mixed to weaker, so watch Monday's trend closely. Any sharp rise should be taken as a selling opportunity on Monday in soy and wheat.

Trading in and out in grains remains the best strategy in the last 18 months.

Friday's trading range (May 2013 contracts)

CORN: $491.50 TO $477.00 (buy)

WHEAT: $686.00 TO $660.50

SOY: $1405.00 TO $1375.00

SOY MEAL: $446.90 TO $435.00

SOY OIL: $43.30 TO $42.40

ENERGY

On Thursday oil prices stabilized, Friday we see positive trend so take buying opportunity on any weakness or around lower side predicted price here below. Compare to oil, energy stocks will move sharply higher so great time to build positions in these front line stocks. Natural gas will trade mix to negative. If today oil close below $99.59 will confirm weaker trend for medium term.

Energy stocks will also move higher, so it's a great time to buy 3x ETF of oil and energy stocks on Tuesday.

This is what we mentioned four weeks ago on Monday, and so far, this range has proven to be very accurate: If oil closes positively on Tuesday, it will confirm oil going toward $104.55. This is what we mentioned yesterday: Oil traded above $99.59 which gives a bullish indication. If oil is above this for the next two days, then the upside will be strong. If it closes two days below $99.59, (one Moon cycle) a bear trend in oil will emerge.

Friday's trading range (ALL April 2014 contracts):

OIL: $98.79 to $97.00

NATURAL GAS: $4.46 to $4.30

HEATING OIL: $2.9405 TO $2.9000

RB GAS: $2.9510 TO $2.9010

CURRENCIES

US dollar made big "U" on Thursday which confirms that weaker trend in USD is ended. In the last one year dollar Index always rebounded string from 79.50 and this will be final time dollar is seeing 79.50 price because here onward USD journey will stop at 100 level so watch our USD predictions closely.

Don't miss buying in USD. This is what we mentioned yesterday: We may see Dollar trading around 79.50 before it rapidly jumps higher. We strongly feel that it is a lifetime buying opportunity in USD against Euro and Swiss Franc. We don't see USD index trading below 79.50 for more than two days, so watch this prediction closely. It's a great time to buy Euro and Swiss Franc PUT OPTIONS of June, September and December 2014.

This is what we mentioned last week: Currency market is ready for big volatility due to European central bank meeting on Thursday and Job report on Friday. Our strategy remains same as buying USD on weakness but don't sell emerging market currencies. Lately our buying recommendations done very well in emerging market currencies since last two weeks. USD may trade mix for some time before it explode on upside from 17 March 2014.

This is what we mentioned in the month of December 2013: Keep adding USD on any weaknesses on Tuesday or around 79.50. Sell Euro around 1.3888, Pound around 1.6620, and Swiss Franc at 1.1370. Emerging market currencies will trade a bit weaker or sideways from Tuesday. We strongly recommend taking some buying positions in USD.

Reading daily range: When we predict a weaker trend it means prices can break lower side and they can trade below predicted lows. (You can cover short but don't buy extra at lower levels until our indicators give buy signal).

When we predict a positive trend, means daily price can break upside and they can trade higher than predicted price (you can book profit but don't short that market).
