Weekly Newsletter from 11-15 June 2018

They shouldn't have departed like this...

Dear Members,

Let me just stop talking about Cannabis, Lithium and the market as today I want to discuss a very important topic with you and the people who are reading this first part of my weekly newsletter. When Kate Spade (used to own a lady's hand bag company which she sold to Coach in $2.5 billion dollars) committed suicide, it really made me think about why she made that extreme decision, but after a few days today morning when I heard the news about Anthony Bourdain, known for his travel shows with different foods and cultures "CNN - Parts Unknown", it made me think that something went wrong in a core part of their thought process which forced both these individuals to make this kind of decision. Both these personalities were well known around the world and they had everything, so why did they make the decision to end their lives? I used to watch Anthony Bourdain's shows, and he seemed to be a very wonderful human being, I couldn't believe that he left us like that.

I was in shock and talking to people today and they said Mahendra it is "depression". I know the meaning of depressions and I have done astro study that why some people become a victim of Depressions. Today, I decided to write about word call "depression", yes, it is the most powerful source of dark energy which takes birth within us and slowly grows and starts taking control of our thought process. Growing dark energy (Depression) power could be very dangerous because it can numb the real thought channel between the heart, mind, and soul; and creates a vertical split or disconnection between the heart, mind, and soul so the core value or meaning of life loses its significance. These three are inner parts of our system, are not outer parts of body, so it is not easy to fix them with medical science. It is only could be treated with meditation and communicating or spending time with a person who can guide our mind, heart, and soul to come together to give back birth of awareness of our own existence.

I always write about meditation, humanity, the power of the mind, good Karma, luck and many other subjects in my financial letter because these subjects are connected with our lives and we are aware about the need of good energy sources and many 'Karmic Kriya's' can provide us with good energy source. Today, I decided to write this part in my financial letter because it is painful to hear about these individuals who ended their lives in such a manner. What a waste, because they could have done so much for others with what was pending in their lives. If they didn't want to live their lives then they should have given their lives in the service of others without thinking of themselves.

I don't want anyone on this planet to die like this, and that is the reason I want to write this note. Please don't waste your life like that. Our life is given by nature, and we are brought in this beautiful world by our parents and we have duty to perform. We do it in selfish ways sometimes, and many times for other people; but at least we respect the law of nature by getting birth, and we wait for nature to take us back. We should leave these two decisions in the hands of nature.

I always recommend and beg people to meditate in the morning, and always tell them to do whatever they can in a small way for the needy. Kate and Anthony could have done great things for many people if they wouldn't have ended their lives. It is a sad day, and I beg every human being not to even think about or give birth to these kinds of thoughts. We should always think about people who like and love us. If there is no human to love us, no matter because nature loves us and that's the reason we are on this planet, and if we believe in God then think about it like God gave us the opportunity serve on this planet, and we are his children. By making the decision to end your life you are not only upsetting our loves ones, but we are hurting nature and God.

If anyone is in depression and reading this letter, then please feel free to send me an email, letter, call me, or come to see me here in Santa Barbara. Don't think that I will charge money for this, I will be very happy if I am able to help get you back from the darkness or shadow and I will feel blessed if I am able to do it. I will give you my full time and this is my humble promise. Please keep away from depression and dark thoughts. We need to do so many good things in life for ourselves and for others. There are so many things to do in our lifetimes, in fact it is unfortunate that nature has provided us with such a limited amount of time in our life cycle, but whatever we have, we should do justice to it.

If you are depressed and if you have small money in your pocket, then walk and find any homeless person or needy, give him $15 worth of dinner and just watch him and his eyes, you will get answer, you will get the hunger to do this every day, you will get the drive to do Karma and do more Seva (help without exaction). If you don't want to earn money then go to a shelter or an old peoples home and do Seva there, we can do millions of types Seva.

History is witness to the fact that even doctors, intellectuals, politicians, actors, artists, basically individuals from all kinds of fields have committed suicide, and the reason is the same; they are "unable to think correctly because of a disconnection between the heart, mind, and soul" and then the dark side of our inner feelings takes us away which leads us to make this kind of decision.

Kate Spade and Anthony and their loved one's are in our prayers. We pray that their loved one's get the strength to handle their loss, and they should promise themselves that the word dépression doesn't come in their lives because this dark word "depression" have taken their love once away from them.

I dedicate this first section of letter in memory of Anthony Bourdain and Kate Spade.

Now let me come back to this week's financial; G7 went into fiasco, now Trump and Kim Jong Un will be meeting so these two political events will put some pressure on market if they go completely in wrong directions. On the other hand we DEF, ECB and BOJ will be meeting this week, so watch monetary policy statement.

Last week when I was analyzing astro charts of the Cannabis sector, I felt that something big is happening. If you are sensitive and pure in any study or analysis, then you can feel and see what is coming. I feel that some positive news is coming from the Government level for this sector. We saw that Canada's Senate Passed marijuana bill on late Thursday and President Trump hinted on Friday that he is in favor of legalizing marijuana. This is what we stated: Cannabis/Marijuana – Investors will make a great amount of money from this sector until it matures and once the Federal government policy becomes clearer on Taxation and accounting. Many states have a clear the path for medical marijuana and many also for recreational purposes. Canadian stocks have done well in the last year, USA stocks are finding ways but we are expecting major policy changes for this sector from the Federal government which could boost the prospects of this sector. Venus is changing this Friday which could play a miracle role for the Cannabis stocks. This Venus will be joining the North Node on Friday, which could play a miracle role this sector. Venus will be staying to this house for one month so lets see whether it able to push this sector higher or not. Venus has complete control on the Marijuana sector. The North Node plays a small role with mars, none of the other planets play any important role for Marijuana. If Marijuana stocks perform very positive from the 8th of June, then we will able to predict every move in Cannabis stocks from here onwards.

We are strongly recommend buying stocks in this sector fearlessly, hold positions and we are sure you will make a fortune. We already started recommending stocks in this sector, and today we are recommending buying two stocks fearlessly. I am expecting huge momentum to start building in this area. MCIG and CANN, are two of our favorite picks for the next month, let's see how strongly these two stocks perform.

I always enjoy studying astro cycles; it is like meditation for me.

Last week Precious metals traded mix, but base metals traded higher. Energy prices traded mixed. Grains lost value and softs also lost value, except for cotton.

I think short term trading and ranges are working very well; if you are trading per our recommendations then out of ten trades, you will make money in eight trades.

On Friday Brazilian Real moved higher more than 4% which was big move. BRZU etf also gained from $15.50 to $21.50 from Thursdays low.

Note – Remain aware and be open to make any trade and we are sure you will do very well as currently we are in a good rhythm. One of member stated last week:

Mahendra

Good day. Finally, you are getting your mojo back. I'm sad that I didn't get your message About THO in time. Happy that you are getting back on track. We will see what the futures bring.

Keith

We still believe that a $375 investment in a copy of the “2018 Financial Predictions” or in $99, $151, and $199 for the different sections of the book is worth every penny if you trade or invest in the market, especially with the risks that people take in trading and investing.

This is what we stated yesterday: To get a complete feel of 2018, the 2017, was very simply a year with a bullish trend, if you have bought market, crypto currency and base metals then you did well without using much of your brain and logic. 2018 on the other hand will be a completely different year. I highly recommend reading “2018 Financial Predictions” book from cover to cover to get a complete feel of 2018. Many readers have the habit of jumping directly to the chapter they are interested in but don't make this mistake this time. Even if you are metal trader you must-read the dollar section, what other commodities will be doing, and what the market's and crypto's trend will be, so please read the book in detail.
