Weekly Newsletter from 11-15 May 2020

This could be final positive week for market and watch 2997 level...

Dear Members,

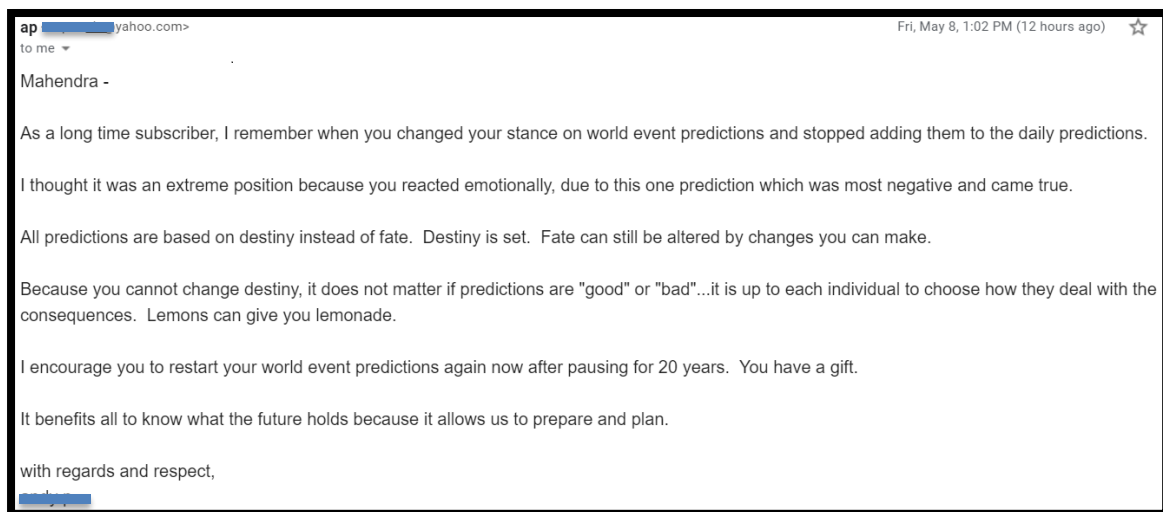

So far this year three of our astro cycles predictions worked out well, and now from the 6th of May we entered in the 4th cycle. Since this cycle started, the market is showing aggressive positive movement which is a good sign, but this cycle is a bit uncertain and we may start witnessing uncertainty from the 14th of May. Whenever there is any negative or positive cycle of one or one and a half month it doesn't mean that the market will trade in one direction continuously. Within the cycle, some short term positive or negative astro combinations can bring an opposite trend of that cycle.

Last week we received an email from one of our members and she was asking about how I saw what we stated on the 5th of May 2009 and whether what's happening right now with coronavirus could be what I saw back then. Last week I sent a small alert with the article we are referencing, and you must have received that. There are a few points I would like to clarify here to put together this jigsaw puzzle. The first point is that in that prophecy I mentioned that the market will be hitting an all-time high with Dow at 38000, and suddenly a disease or meteor will hit planet Earth which will cause globally deaths of 9-25% of human population. In 2009 in the end of February when we predicted

Dow hitting 38000, we expected that at the same time that S&P would hit 3200. We expected these ranges to be achieved by 2016 but that never happened. S&P achieved 3200 in 2019 and Dow lagged and remained below 20% of our higher side target. The coronavirus news broke out when S&P was at an all-time high and it turned into the worst disaster in recent history where one dark cloud which started from China spread all over the world and we never thought that our life would be stuck in lockdown and quarantine globally. Many requested to keep doing great detail study for world events:

Let me put this article here below. Please go through this article and I would like to make a few points after my new study on this article:

The current astro combinations indicate that the time will remain volatile in the world because the uncertain time looming over us all will end by 5th of September 2020 when the South Node will move out from the house of Sagittarius. Surely, I can predict a far better period for humankind after 5th September 2020. Until then, anything is possible, but we may see some more positive news from 1st July when Jupiter moves from Capricorn to Sagittarius in retro-direction. We always say that every day we learn something new, and I have learned something very unique in astrology post this pandemic. A few astro combinations can create a huge disaster, and I will leave all of these secrets to be revealed when I write my own astrology book.

I am still doing an in-depth study and research about what I said and why I was wrong on the timing.

Many of our members sent us emails regarding many of our past predictions over the last 15 years and this email reminded me about all my past predictions such as:

1. I predicted that gold may hit $5000 and in 2052 Gold's era will come to an end because of better gold being produced in Chemical Factories at far lesser costing. This will cause the demand of this precious metal to vanish.
2. I also predicted Oil going to $10 or below which was already proven right last month.
3. We also predicted that animals will communicate with humans through machines.
4. We predicted that there will be a war for Grains because of severe drought globally and dramatic change in weather patterns which will only produce 10% of yearly production and this problem will continue for 2-3 years.
5. Property valuation will decrease in the next 20-30 years, and that period has already started from 2020.
6. We also spoke about biological warfare rather than physical war between countries. Coronavirus could be a part of this biological war, but until clear evidence has not surfaced, we do not want to make baseless claims.

7. We also predicted that some form of blood related disease will be born where people will die within 48 hours. This seems very scary.
8. 38 years ago, at a very young age, I predicted so many technological revolutions when I was sitting in my village and many of those predictions already came true.

I hope and pray that my negative predictions do not see the light of the day because we do not want people to suffer, and we sincerely pray for all living things. I want the 3rd of September to pass by quickly because after that I see a great ray of hope for the world.

Last month I spoke about not focusing on religion too much. Just try to focus on your own soul, and meditate, and your life's journey in which we can do many great things. If we focus on religion, then many hurdles come between humans because religion is man-made.

Reading daily range: When we predict a weaker trend it means prices can break lower side and they can trade below predicted lows. (You can cover short but don't buy extra at lower levels until our indicators give buy signal).

When we predict a positive trend, means daily price can break upside and they can trade higher than predicted price (you can book profit but don't short that market).
