Weekly Newsletter from 8-12 June 2020

We need to listen, learn, meditate and actions, this process will bring great results in every area of life...humble request - please do not forward letter to anyone...

Dear Members,

Today I would like to talk on a subject which can help us make the right decisions in life. It doesn't matter whether this is an investment decision, personal life decisions, or a career decision. Listening, learning, and meditating can bring great satisfactory results for us. Many times, the results may not benefit you monetarily, but it may give birth to a new seed within you, and those seeds can enhance your thinking power.

In the past we mentioned many times that my dedication to my theory, and meditation are what help me look into the future, and after looking into the future I can come back to the present very smoothly. This is what allowed me to provide a few prophecies which laid the foundation for me as a prophet, or future seer. Some of these early predictions were the Middle East war of 1990, crumbling of the USSR, Nelson Mandela ruling South Africa, the Death of Princess Diana, the assassination of Rajiv Gandhi, Attack in USA on 9/11, Bill Clinton Scandal, and the list goes on... When I started putting 100% focus on the financial market, my overall picture about every financial area came very accurate. Many times, I failed to predict accurately for the short term, and that happened because of involving myself with short-term emotions, which is a core hidden part in humans.

We humans have so many dynamics within ourselves, like fear, love, attachment, hate, greed, anger, revenge, and this list goes on. Many of these are great qualities, and many are also negative. The best way to find and keep check on ourselves, it is important to meditate, and this meditation will help clear any of those clouds looming above us.

We are born with some instincts. Even animals have those instincts – like a deer runs away as soon as he sees a predator, because its instinct tells it to run and save itself, so it doesn't get killed. Many animals that became domesticated learned to keep humans happy as a way of getting what they want. Many animals also go into attack mode to save themselves. In short, living things are born with qualities of reacting to positive or adverse situations, and they have been provided with tools by nature to assist them through the course of life.

Let me come back to where I started this newsletter. You subscribe to my letter to get a glimpse into the future, and into what I see. This means that you are trying to listen. You then learn how to implement what I see. And meditating will help you clear any doubts. Once the doubts are cleared, then your actions will provide you great results.

I have been an advocate for planning a medium to longer term strategy, which will have a major part of your capital. For the short term, you can use 20% of capital to bet on rapid movements and make you great returns in the short term. Never use 100% of your capital on a short-term basis, otherwise it is too risky to lose everything in life. Never speculate with 100% capital. In the last 25 years, we have seen great quality stocks providing returns in ten to hundred folds if you believe in those companies and are able to correctly see the future.

Only twice in 25 years have I recommended to get out of every stock investment. And that was in late 1999/early 2000, and in 2007. In fact, if you read my book and all the letters from 2007, you will see how negative I was about the capital market as well as most of the financial and commodity products. In fact, that was the time I recommended creating a huge short in the market, or betting against the bull, and you are the witness of what happened in 2008, and early 2009. I was very lucky to see the future very clearly and in the end of February 2009, I predicted that one of the greatest Bull Era's is coming, and I recommended people sell their assets and buy quality stocks in the USA, and my focus was in all the sectors with frontline quality stocks, but I recommended buying 50% in technology, 25% in biotech, and 25% in all other sectors.

The above was only possible because I was listening, learning, meditating, and after taking action, and the action was predicting the future of the market to guide you. I hope you will implement these tools in your life. I know most of you are intelligent but using my instincts will add great flavor to your success.

Let's talk about the financial market because you must be eager to see what will happen after last week's Mini-Crash in Wall Street on Thursday. Will this market go up or down from here? Let's talk about all of this in the below sections.

Here is this week's letter from 15th to 19th June 2020

GOLD/SILVER/BASE METALS

Last week metal prices traded positive with some uncertainty. Gold has been trading within an $80 range within the last 3 months.

On Monday we recommend trading in and out in precious metals as well as base metals, but buying is recommended on the lower sides. One can buy mining stocks on Monday...

INDEXES

Last week USA markets had a mini crash on Thursday after achieving our most important higher side target of 3219, which was our selling level. Fear once again dominated the investors' psychology. Rising numbers in Coronavirus cases after reopening caused many to become skeptic. Many see that valuations of stocks have reached the peak....

On Monday the market will rebound from the lower side level or buying on weakness is our call for Monday. On the lower side we recommend buying in Financial, biotech and tech stocks. Financial Stocks will play a key role on Monday to support the market. Buy long etfs and sell bear etf, sell also UVXY....

ENERGY

Last week as predicted, oil prices tested 40.11 and after that it came lower. We still recommend selling oil around the $40 level.

This week on Monday oil prices will trade on both sides....

CURRENCIES

Last week currencies traded very volatile on both sides. Emerging markets, Euro, Pound and Swiss Franc moved on both sides aggressively. Dollar Indexes moved sharply lower from Monday to Wednesday but then rebound on Thursday and Friday.

Most of frontline currencies...

GRAINS

Last week grains like corn and soy acted well but wheat prices struggled. From here to 30th June is time to accumulate positions in soy and corn. I am still expecting a gradual price movement in grains from July onwards without any major weakness...

SOFTS

Last week softs traded negative. We are strongly recommending staying away from any aggressive buying. As predicted 1st July will be the turnaround date for coffee, sugar, and cocoa. Cotton will trade mixed but surely will hold value.

Astrological combinations are ready to bring major price movement in softs.....

Monday astro combination recommendations – Mix to negative trend is expected in softs.

Monday's trading range: (July 2020 Contract)

COFFEE: $96.81 TO $94.45

COTTON: 60.18 TO 59.00

COCOA: 2431 TO 2351

SUGAR: $12.21 TO $11.66

THIRTY YEAR BOND

Last week Thirty Year bond gained value sharply from 173-00 to 179-00 level as predicted. This week looks mixed, and on the higher side prices will struggle to move further higher so be aware. This week sellers will make some money but make sure to cover shorts on Friday.

This week on Monday Bond prices will trade on both sides...

Monday's astro combination recommendation – Bond prices recovered from 173-00 to 180-00, now time to close long.

Monday's trading range (June 2020 contract):

Reading daily range: When we predict a weaker trend it means prices can break lower side and they can trade below predicted lows. (You can cover short but don't buy extra at lower levels until our indicators give buy signal).

When we predict a positive trend, means daily price can break upside and they can trade higher than predicted price (you can book profit but don't short that market).
