Market Sentiment and Technicals are negative...but Astro combinations are showing the opposite picture so it is testing time for Astro theory...read each line of the first section carefully...

Dear Members,

At the time that I am writing this letter all the major planetary positions and waves of nature's cycles are about to take a turn after hitting the lowest point. The 18th of October 2022 could be the day, like it was on the 22nd of March 2020 and the 6th of March 2009 when the market rebounded after a huge fall. It will be like you were walking in an unknown place, in the dark, and you didn't know what was coming next, and then Sun shines and the darkness goes away.

I got up at 3.30 AM and just finished the most important weekly newsletter. Since four major planets changed in the month of April 2022 which rarely happens, it created a most uncertain trend in the global financial system and policymakers started creating uncertain policies like what the FED and UK officials are doing. They don't know what to do and this is what we clearly mentioned in the "2022 Financial Predictions". Now for the short-term four Astro combinations are taking place which may bring many things on the right track, by end of the first week of November and that is the only reason we don't see a rate hike in 2022 November.

It has been one of the toughest times for investors, Covid, inflation, rate hikes, the Russian war, and finally, fear of recessions which is FED's plan as buying power of consumers will drop along with market weakness and a gloomy scenario. Now traders and investors will try to save money rather than spend because a fearful time has arrived.

For the last three weeks, we have been writing that the volatility will end on the 16th of October 2022, and the rising cycle will start on the 17th of October. The cycle can take 24 hours to gear up so let's say the 18th of October could be the rescue day, and from here the Astro cycles will bring positive sentiments which means that the negativity will be ending. Those who will try to pull down the markets could be entering the line of fire, and they can get burned, so I warn all short sellers to close all short positions or close all hedging trades on Monday.

Last week on Thursday the USA market rebounded from the worst low of 2022, which was the first and most important sign from the Astro cycles for investors who are hoping and praying for the market to move higher. Though I have been predicting that worst to end on the 16th of October in our letters, I mentioned the same thing in the book, that the worst could end on the 17th of October, and the market will close in the green on the 18th of October.

Nature always provides indications, and during the last two and a half years investors have faced the most extreme time cycle. The first hit came from covid, and for 35-days the world's market faced an unseen time cycle in which humanity came under danger, the world markets collapsed, and though covid still dominated for the next year until the vaccine came in, the markets killed the bears on the 22nd of March 2020 and started a unique journey. It was a pandemic and people reunited with families and started working from home, this was one of the most unique times that humanity faced in the last 100 years. The lockdown created supply chain issues which gave birth to inflation. The stock market going higher and extra cash from FED played a major role in spending which was also a key reason for inflation. Home improvement, new homes, and the rental market moved crazily higher. Suddenly everything started going up beyond fair value.

In 2022 a different problem hit the market when Russia announced the war on Ukraine. Energy prices and other commodities went through the roof due to fear and the FED started driving interest rates higher during the war period which was one of the worst decisions because we were just coming out of a Pandemic, the worst war situation, and the Chinese lockdown which is key supplier of finished and unfinished goods to the world.

Even though commodities prices started falling after a few months and still are falling right now, by going below the levels of early 2022 pre-war prices, the FED still feels that inflation is at the peak when commodities are really falling hard. There is purely a mismatch, but it looks like this time the FED is playing a bear role, and when the FED is bearish, who can fight this bear. Yes, only the Astro time cycle can do so. In the 2022 book “2022 Financial Predictions” we clearly mentioned that the FED and world leaders will remain confused, they won’t be able to make the right decisions. I think that the FED has been reacting in a rush without a clear vision of the future. Now the Astro cycles are changing so the behavior pattern will change. Major FED policy changes will come after the 23rd of October when Saturn will change directions from the Retro directions.

Yes, only the Astro cycle can change the mind and decisions of the FED. The planetary combinations and wave of nature can make the FED wake up, and they can realize that they are destroying wealth and creating a mess in the financial markets which could lead to a major new crisis. Thank GOD that this week on Monday, Tuesday, and on the 23rd of October the Astro cycle is changing to a 100% positive cycle and will change the financial markets trend positively.

My whole focus in life is on financial markets' behavior pattern. I was in fear during the last three weeks, and the markets behaved very badly but I am seeing a great light of awakening which will wake up the FED and a surprise note will come in the next meeting. It will be an awakening note and you will see a huge reaction from the markets. By the 15th of November 2022, we see the market making an unbelievable recovery and that's the reason we have been recommending buying November to February call options in Indexes and ETFs because the USA market will move higher. In the month of November, we may see a 15 to 18% rally in the market.

I am sending this letter as an unlocked PDF file, print it out and keep it on your desk, we will talk regarding this letter on the 30th of November 2022. We will come to know whether my services are just useless, or they are worth the subscription price you pay, or they are worth 100 times more than the price you pay.

I will be really worrying if the market doesn't rise I will really start getting worried if markets fail to rise as per our predictions from the 18th of October because even in our book, we mentioned that a big rally to start on the 17th of October 2022. If the market doesn't rise from here onwards then it can remain uncertain or in the bear's grip until March 2023.

In the last 37 years, overall, the Astro cycles have been able to provide us with the longer-term directions in every financial instrument very accurately, and most of the predictions came true on a longer-term basis so far. The Astro cycle also provided us with accurate dates of turnaround, and we hope this time as well the Astro cycles will prove that they shape the world financial market directions, not us. Often in the short term I do miss the calculations which don't mean that the Astro cycle is wrong, it means that I was not able to read Astro combinations correctly, so yes, you can blame me but please don't blame Astro cycles. You must trust the Astro cycles as they are nature and nature is Astro cycle changes.

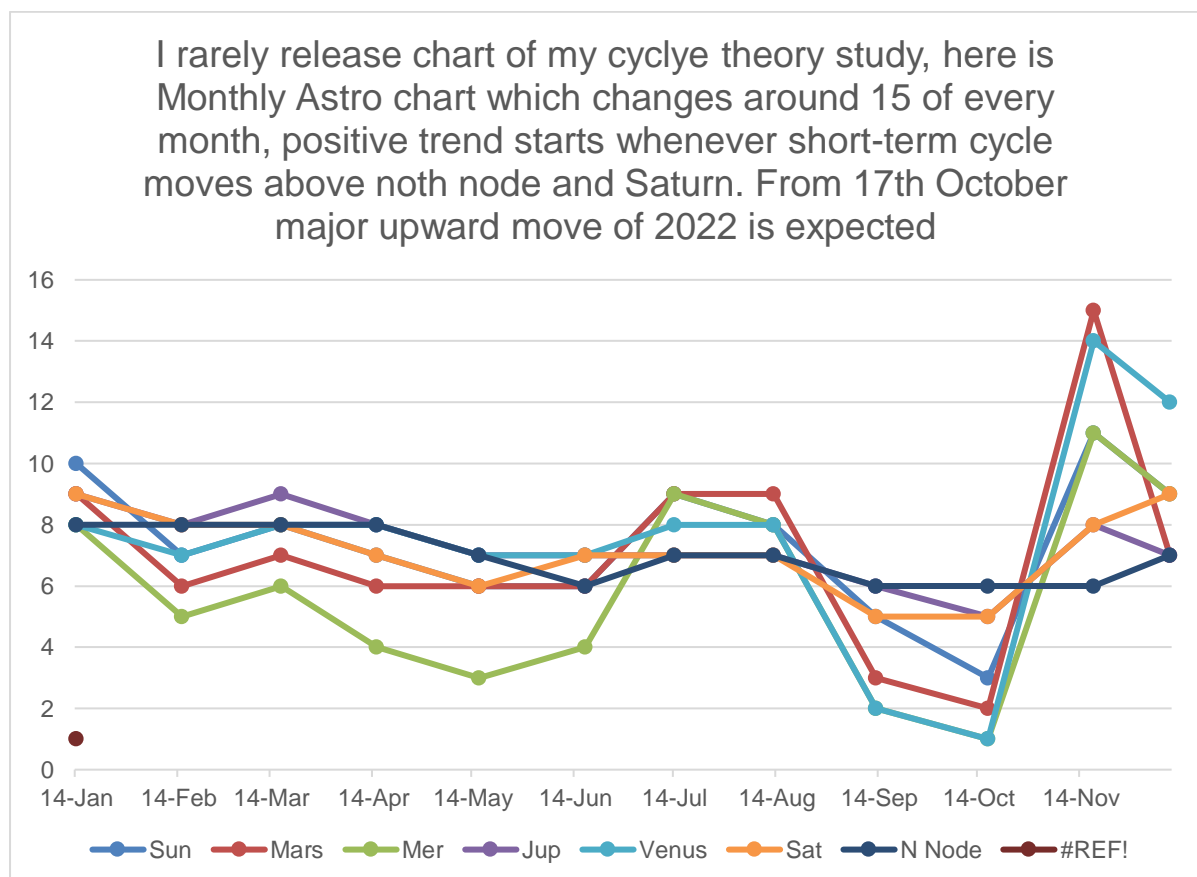

I am in the final year of the 18th year north node cycle, before 2005 every word and every sentence of mine use to be like the words from nature because the level of accuracy was amazing. People used to call me a prophet, and that's how Mahendraprophecy was born in 2001. My North Node cycle will end in April 2023, I have been waiting for this to end for more than 17 years. My Jupiter cycle will start, Jupiter represents wisdom, knowledge, Astrology, spirituality, meditations, purity, predictions, and nature. My Grandfather told me that I will come very closer to unlocking the most hidden part of nature or I may be able to reveal the deep secret about who we are or who is God. I hope that I can do this, I have been waiting to start trading and investing from next year and want to feel all excitement and fun but sometimes I feel that I may leave everything and go on a hidden spiritual journey to know myself and my relationship with nature and why I exist here.

I don't know how many years we may remain connected, but in nature, we are connected in a hidden way, whether we know it personally or not. When we get personally connected that brings out emotional bonding, hate, and all kinds of different relations and feelings. Let me leave this topic here, but one thing I would like to say very humbly is that I always do my work with honesty, whether I am right or wrong is decided by nature, and if I am wrong then humbly I accept my defeat and feel responsible for my lack of ability to read the future correctly.

Important note: Please don't forward the letter, you can let them know about our work and tell them to subscribe if they wish to because I put in so much hard work so this is only for you. They can subscribe to our trial period of one week at $189.

Here is a chart of the ASTRO cycle, you can see that a huge move is starting from 18 October.

Reading daily range: When we predict a weaker trend it means prices can break lower side and they can trade below predicted lows. (You can cover short but don't buy extra at lower levels until our indicators give buy signal).

When we predict a positive trend, means daily price can break upside and they can trade higher than predicted price (you can book profit but don't short that market).
