Commodities and markets could move together...watch gold/silver/oil

Dear Members,

Ignoring our humble request against the law of nature and not good Karma which may not allow to gain from our service so please do not forward or share information from our letter with anyone. Tell them to subscribe their own services. I put so much hard work in it for you to write this letter and always humbly requesting not forward so please accept my request as we still we see few people forward letter to their friends as we have tracking code so please don't do it other wise we will cancel your services without refund and we have complete right of doing that.

I keep delving deeper into the Astro cycle study to understand the coming time with Corona, the world economy, and the financial markets. My members are looking for a clear answer or at least a vague picture of future from me. I always try to my best to portray a picture of the future, but 2020 came with really big challenges for us, for all humankind, scientist, Doctors, tech companies, the corporate world, Governments, and all other authorities. Among all this is political stress with a few nations.

It is very interesting to see that our book "2020 Financial Prophecies" says that the USA and China tensions would rise in the fourth cycle which started on the 6th May and will end on the 15th of June 2020. So far it looks like when I was writing the Indexes section, I saw and was able to predict very accurately about the global equity markets.

If I start writing about the Astro cycle combinations here, then even fifty to a hundred pages won't be enough to explain what is happening. I simply write about the trend, which is frankly the most important thing for you as you make trading and investment decisions on our recommended outlook.

Few points I would like to reveal here:

1. I have predicted many global events since the age of 16, but let me be very honest that the current Astro combinations are so complex that if we are not very careful then leaders, investors, or the common man could make big mistakes because for us it looks like we are all walking into the darkness. I am getting concerned about Jupiter in Capricorn, Saturn in Capricorn, with Jupiter moving retro in Sagittarius and joining back with the South Node. It is a challenging time for the world because Jupiter will enter Sagittarius ON THE 30TH OF JUNE 2020 and will remain in Sagittarius until end of November 2020. It will remain in retro positions until the 23rd of September 2020, but after that it will bless the world between the 23rd of September to the 27th of November 2020. During this period the Dark cloud could take over world will start disappearing and the world will have a Vaccine and medication during this period. Which means that June to September still world will try to find way to open up with all kinds of measures, but we all will be 100% safe after the 23rd of September 2020. I have tried my best to study and we shall see whether this prediction to gets fulfilled. I can predict get ready to spend Christmas time with family and friends, you will be able to travel 100% without any fear and Corona virus will be 100% curable. I don't see any great news till the end of June 2020, but surely great hope will start from the 1st of July 2020 onwards, and as predicted Corona will be treated 100% by the last week of November.

2. No one expected the market to move this aggressively between the 23rd of March 2020 to the 5th of May 2020, but our theory did, and we predicted without watching what is happening in the world. I trust my subject so much that I never get influenced by what is currently happening. In the current cycle we are expecting volatility in the market, but Saturn will keep supporting biotech and Pharma stocks as predicted in our book. 2020 and 2021 will be great year for the Pharma, Healthcare, and Biotech stocks.
3. Gold has been in our buying list since early last year, and still we are recommending holding long positions in gold. There is a possibility that gold may test an all-time high in 2020, don't short gold, and silver will get completely supported by gold so watch silver closely.
4. Oil traded as predicted, our buying recommendation at $9.55 has done really well, it is now around $28.00 and may test $33.71 in the coming time. Overall, it will be a challenging time for oil but surely we won't see single digits again.
5. A currency war is coming, and USD will win this war, but many emerging market currencies look great in the coming time. Many were talking about the digitization of Chinese Currencies could impact the world currency market, but I don't see that happening at all. In fact, I see China will get trapped after 2021, it is a disastrous time from all angles for China. I see social unrest, Governments and people fighting will bring the worst time for the second economic power of world. If I am invested in China, then I will be planning to get out by 2021. I already predicted that June to December could be a better time for the Chinese market but from December 2020 onwards one should start getting out from any sizable investments. After 2029 a great time cycle will start but we must see how much the Astro cycle damage's China (economically, Socially and politically).

6. I already predicted a disastrous time for Middle Eastern nations, their wealth will get destroyed, and people will lose a fortune in the real estate market even in cities like Dubai. I am not recommending investing a single dollar in Middle Eastern countries nations. I already warned about this a few years ago and recommended these countries invest funds in USA companies. Dollar pack with Middle Eastern counties will withdraw in the next three years so we need to watch this. I also mentioned that real-estate prices would completely collapse big way in the second half of 2020 and in the coming time, so I won't recommend any investments in the real-estate market. Also, the rental market will drop in the remainder of 2020.
7. Trade carefully, you must have smart planning otherwise the destruction of wealth is coming. Food inflation is on the way, precious metals will rise on current uncertainty, and many governments may not honor their financial commitments. Be careful of investing in any country's bonds at this stage. I still believe that USA corporate and specialty many tech and biotech companies will do well.

8. Final note: The World will change drastically in the coming time so get ready for that, it is most painful time until June 2020 but after that things will start changing as mentioned in the first point. Business dynamic and global growth will move in a mixed direction. Many nonessential things will start disappearing or will lose value. Hold your cash tightly so invest in what is best or in our most favorite areas as predicted.

Final note: Best bet still at this stage will be in USA market, stay long in commodities like precious metals, and do not short oil yet though prices moved sharply higher as from $9.55 to 30.65, but still has room to move further higher.

Gold era has begin since last years and entered in most powerful trend as predicted so follow our metal sections.
