Weekly Newsletter from 20 – 24 April 2020

Market is safe is third astro cycle as mentioned in our book...forth cycle will decide where we are heading...

Dear Members,

Last week was the most amazing week for investors. Our higher side target of 2881 for S&P got achieved. When the accuracy goes to these levels, I also get very excited and really look forward to guiding you for the next week. Many of our favorite stocks tested all time highs when in fact the market is trading 20% lower from is the all-time high. It shows us that we have succeeded in identifying the right stocks. I was comparing my recommendations and it seems that small cap stocks that I recommended such as PBYI, CLVS, PCRX, VIAV, EXTR, XLNX, Cannabis Stocks haven't performed well at all. Moving forward we'll be more careful with the recommendations of small cap stocks. We also must remember that many of our recommended stocks that went up 10 to 20 folds were also small to midcap stocks at one time for example VEEV, DXCM, AMD, and the list goes on and on.

A few of my favorite stocks performed very well in the last 25 days and will continue performing well in the longer term. Whenever any correction comes, get ready to acquire positions. Here is the list of stocks charts.

Let's discuss a few important points before I start each section. Globally the world is still on lockdown and people are concerned about how this pandemic situation will get resolved. Until we keep ourselves isolated the situation can remain under control, but as soon as we start moving around the chances of exposure to infected persons increase. Many say that until the vaccine or drug isn't released, the risk of infection will remain very high.

Astrologically we predicted that after the 15th of April the fear of coronavirus from peoples' minds will slowly start fading. We also expected that a drug announcement should come, and last week Gilead reports announced that its drug was working well on patients with Coronavirus. This means that the current Aries Sun, which will remain in the house of Aries until 15th May, is ready to bring some good news. I trust the Aries Sun 100% and it will bring about a miracle.

It will be easier on the psyche of people to restart leading normal lives once the drug is out. The drug will play an important psychological role to ease peoples minds. Once everyone gets infected and have recovered from the infection, Coronavirus will be treated just like a seasonal flu.

I have been constantly writing for the last 2-3 weeks that S&P is ready for 5000, and I still believe that this level shall be achieved by 2021. We already predicted that S&P won't remain below 2388 for 3 days, and we mentioned this while going through the worst time for the market. That advice proved very accurate and I'm sure most of you are witness to that. Now I'm really looking forward to the target of 5000 in S&P being achieved. Let the next few months move out of the way because as mentioned in the book (2020 Financial Prophecies) some weakness in the market would come from the end of 1st week of May to the mid of June. This might be a volatile time where the market will go up and down.

Globally, a huge shift will take place because many companies will be able to find out whether work can be done remotely, without face to face meetings, and without investing time in traveling. Many new working dynamics will shift in the corporate world.

China really needs to open and be fair with the world right now. They need to respect the intellectual property rights. They need to allow international media in their country, and they need to be transparent with their financial system. I mentioned a few months back that they have been burning money in many parts of the world to have a presence. Also, lately they have started investing a huge sum of money in key stocks internationally. The amount of money they are printing is mind boggling; I don't know whether they report accurately to the world bank, IMF, and the federal monetary system. We already mentioned that China will have a great time from June 2020 onwards, but after that everything will fall apart in China. It is the worst economic crisis that is coming for China and it will come so fast that people will lose an enormous amount of wealth in China. It is time for them to make the right economic decisions to ditch the looming uncertainty, or at least try to.

Many businesses will lose 100%, like florist, travel agencies, tour operators, public and private transporters, airline, hotels, short term holiday rentals, restaurant, street food and retail vendors and list goes on. On other side those who were spending on all these will be also saving money by not spending. Always coin has two sides, surely online business operators will grow as people will be spending on other things. Current situation is complex, but world will come out from this. Thailand small island which were completely destroyed by tsunami were rebuilt again and world rebounded strongly after two world wars.

IMPORTANT NOTE: I am very optimistic that the world will start becoming a normal place from July. I am also very hopeful that by 15th May some concrete news on the drug for Corona will be out, and that it will be able to treat most of the Corona patients. This means that the FDA will approve a drug. As predicted 30th June will be the ending of the uncertainty of the world situation. Please take care of yourselves, your loved ones, and stay safe – the dark cloud will soon be lifted.

Final note: For the last one month I have been getting strange thoughts after every deep meditation, and I get the feeling that all the different religious leaders are not able to guide their followers or community in right directions with clear truth. There is much greed and competition to make their religion better than the next, or every priest and preacher wants to be better than other, or race to gather more crowd than other.

People have been building huge temples, churches, and mosques non-stop, spending billions even though there are enough temples, churches and mosques. I wish that the same money could have been spent building hospitals, schools, clean water systems, and other better, more humanitarian facilities. I see many small towns all over Africa, India, and other countries with bigger mosques, temples, and churches, but in those very areas there are no infrastructural developments of proper roads, hospitals, and schools. Pregnant women's lives are often endangered due to a significant lack of proper supportive healthcare systems in these areas.

Please tell your religious leaders not to invest or spend money towards the churches, temples, and mosques, or you will stop donating your money. We are all alive because of nature (air, water, fire, and earth), not because of religion. No religion is able to divide the air we all breathe. Four different religious leaders, priest, mullah or preachers walking together will breathe in and out the same air because they couldn't divide as it is out of their hand.

It is time wake up. It is time to awaken our conscience. Believe in nature because the so-called God is nature. God is within us, and in every breath we take. It is a very lengthy subject, but all our unanswered questions will start getting resolved once we start meditating and bringing self-awareness and consciousness about into your psyche. You will realize that you will understand your life better than the religious leaders, priest ]or preachers' teachings ever could.

I will keep writing about this subject. More and more under-educated and people facing strife are always getting trapped in the hands of religious leaders or preachers. Work hard and help others if you can, because we have a limitation of age. It is never too early nor is it ever too late to be give back to our societies in order to make our lives more meaningful, and others' lives more comfortable. I will continue to write about this subject.

Please don't share predictions part to non-subscriber, doing this is breaking law of nature, let other people subscribe their own services.

Reading daily range: When we predict a weaker trend it means prices can break lower side and they can trade below predicted lows. (You can cover short but don't buy extra at lower levels until our indicators give buy signal).

When we predict a positive trend, means daily price can break upside and they can trade higher than predicted price (you can book profit but don't short that market).
