Hong Kong-Taiwan-CoronaVirus-Tradewar all is connected to China

Dear Members,

Last week the markets gained value. It was a short-term positive week and the US market acted in that direction. S&P came back to its two weeks higher side level of 2971. Our Astro theory guided us well, even though the medium-term cycle is showing some uncertainty on geo-political situation, especially with the US and China. Since this current cycle started the USA and China tension is rising. Last week the US senate passed a bill to delist Chinese stocks from exchanges if they find any irregularity in the accounting system. This news pushed Chinese stocks sharply lower, YINN lost 16% value in the last two trading days.

I am concerned about the USA/China situation there is an issue of Hong Kong and Taiwan with China. In the USA and many places globally, people are losing love toward Chinese goods, and also in China around 35% of the people say that they don't want to buy USA products. USA/China issue is rising at this stage, but China's creditability is at risk because of the Corona issue.

Still biotech and tech stocks are performing well. Last week SPLK was one of our favorite picks and recommended buying it on Thursday. It moved $20.00 higher on Friday. This clearly indicates that tech, biotech, and healthcare stocks are still our favorites.

Many are calling this rally the final rally for the market before it adopts a multi-year bear market. If the market behaves the way I see in the coming time, then we may see S&P testing 5000. The USA financial market era is changing, the valuation game is changing, and five years ago I mentioned that Wall-street must change valuations and PE ratio method, as it is a new era and the growth story is different now for many sectors.

The Corona virus issue is still very hot, and it looks like the world is getting divided on lockdown, and whether or not to follow the guidelines or not. People are getting frustrated under government guidelines in places. Many countries governments didn't know how to react to this pandemic.

Astrologically the current time is only bad for the geo-political situation, especially with the US and China. President Trump can get aggressive on China and the situation could remain tense until the end of June. I strongly recommend not to invest in Chinese stocks as they get delisted and you won't be able to sell it. China has to play by the worlds rule book, they should stop stealing intellectual property and should not present false financial statements.

A very negative time cycle will start for China from the end of 2021 so be aware, the world economic structure and dynamics are changing and changing very fast so adopt these changes. Unemployment will remain higher and the worlds real-estate market will not perform well. Expensive artifacts will not get that much value and the way Corona impacted the world; the world will change in many ways.

Astrologically this week is very important. Normally I finish my weekly newsletter on Saturday, but I finished writing the Flashnews on Saturday I am writing this letter on Sunday as Monday is a holiday in the USA. On Sunday Mercury will change its house and will join North Node. The planet of Shadow which can bring aggressive moves on either side. No one can catch the shadow, and sometimes it presents what is hidden, or sometimes gives indications of future. My whole life I have been trying to understand the North node but so far not much success, though many learned astrologers believe that I know about North Node more than anyone else, but I don't feel that way. Many predictions I made on the North Node's transit came 100% true. Changing valuation of stocks prices in 2015 was one of the key predictions which was guided by the North Node. Also, in 2015 we predicted that speculation would rise on Wall-street and the bears will keep getting killed, which was also part of the North Node predictions.

Mercury Joining the North Node on Sunday is the key Astro combinations. Next week will decide where we are going from here onwards. It looks like we may be going higher, but if on Tuesday the market closes negatively then worrying sign's will be brought by Mercury and the North Node.

Since the first week of February we have been recommending buying these COVID-19 stocks, many already went more than five folds. These stocks are still in our buying list and they are INO, VIR, MRNA, NVAX, DYAI, CODX, NNVC, REGN, EBS, BNTX, GILD, Sanofi, and JNJ. We recommended most of these stocks and most of them have gained value.

We are also holding our prediction of the world becoming a normal place by the 30th of June so from 1st of July the world will reopen.

When I was writing this year's book "2020 Financial Prophecies", now fourth cycle indicating China and USA tensions which looks getting ugly. This may impact market in the month of June.

I am bit concern about USA and China, at this stage China is not doing many right things.

Reading daily range: When we predict a weaker trend it means prices can break lower side and they can trade below predicted lows. (You can cover short but don't buy extra at lower levels until our indicators give buy signal).

When we predict a positive trend, means daily price can break upside and they can trade higher than predicted price (you can book profit but don't short that market).
