Friday Daily Flash news (Unedited report)

After TSLA, MSFT NOW, Apple and now AMZN provided fortune to investors as predicted...

Dear Members,

On Thursday there were concerns and uncertainty among investors about the Coronavirus, and this forced stocks to move sharply lower in the Asian and European markets. USA stocks also opened lower, but in the last two hours of trading stocks rebounded strongly. Tech and biotech played a key role. Most of our recommendations did very well during this earing season from stocks like JPM and GS, to MSFT, APPLE, NOW, TSLA, and today AMZN. This year our target for AMZN is $2300 and it looks like it will soon achieve that target. Most of the people on Wall-Street didn't believe our target of $750, when it was struggling around $250 and now it looks like it will be a reality soon.

I am really happy for my members as from the 4th of November I mentioned that investors should follow our work closely, as I might be in one of the best cycles of my predicting career, and so far the last two months have been amazing.

This week most of our buying recommendations on earnings did well, we recommended buying TSLA, APPLE, NOW, and Microsoft, they performed very well. On Thursday we recommended AMZN, EW, and VRTX, and all these stocks performed very well.

On Thursday our lower side buying recommendation in USA stocks and Indexes did really well for the markets, we also recommended buying gold silver and platinum on Thursday, but recommended booking profit on the higher side which also did really well. Grains and softs traded negatively on China news, but today was one of the best buying opportunities, and if you haven't done so yet, then you must buy on Friday.

Dollar lost value, and will recover back on Friday, read metals, currencies, Indexes, energy, grains, softs bond section carefully, must remember that give importance to our every predictions as there is everyday trading opportunity which can earn you good returns on daily basis.
